ABOUT GIU

Graham International University (GIU), LLC is a 100% online institution dedicated to providing accessible and affordable education worldwide. With administrative branches in the USA and Vietnam, GIU is uniquely positioned to connect diverse communities and bridge cultural gaps through education.

As part of The Frankie Graham Jr. Foundation, GIU is driven by a mission to shape the future of international relations. We believe in the power of education to foster mutual understanding, respect, and collaboration among nations. By educating individuals about different cultures, belief systems, and global perspectives, GIU aims to contribute to stronger diplomatic relationships and a more harmonious world.

Our commitment extends beyond borders to reach underprivileged communities in Africa, the Arab World, Asia, Europe, and South America. GIU offers a variety of educational programs designed to empower individuals and create opportunities for personal and professional growth.

At GIU, we are passionate about making education a universal right rather than a privilege. Join us as we transform lives, build bridges, and inspire a brighter future for all.

VISION

Graham International University envisions a world of interconnectedness, where cultural diversity is celebrated and diplomatic bonds thrive. Through accessible education, we aspire to cultivate global citizens equipped with deep cultural understanding and empathy.

Our vision extends beyond borders, fostering harmonious relationships among nations. We envision a future where individuals from diverse backgrounds come together to address global challenges collaboratively.

With scholarship opportunities spanning selected nations, we aim to empower talented minds worldwide, creating a brighter, more inclusive future for generations.

MISSION

Graham International University would like to shape the future of international relations by educating people worldwide about different cultures and belief systems in a way that better improves countries' diplomatic relationships.

Graham International University would like to make the various educational programs available and affordable worldwide with full or partial academic scholarships to a selected few from the following countries: China, India, Japan, South Korea, Malaysia, the Philippines, Thailand, and Vietnam.

Students who earn undergraduate degrees from Graham International University are automatically eligible for partial and full scholarships.

MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Welcome to Graham International University (GIU), a beacon of education and cultural understanding. Our university is more than just an institution of higher learning; it is a bridge that connects diverse cultures and belief systems, fostering a world where diplomatic relationships can flourish through mutual respect and understanding.

At GIU, we believe in the transformative power of education to shape a better world. We seek to create a future where interconnectedness and cultural diversity are not just ideals but realities. We aspire to cultivate global citizens who are equipped with the knowledge and empathy needed to navigate and resolve the complex challenges our world faces today.

As you explore our programs, know that you are joining a community dedicated to excellence, innovation, and the betterment of society. Graduates of GIU are not just students—they are ambassadors of peace, understanding, and progress. We invite you to join us on this journey, as we work together to build a brighter, more inclusive world.

Sincerely,
Prof. Frankie Graham Jr.
President, Graham International University
